Dear Judge Flanagan,

I would first like to say that I am only contacting you because I have made reasonable efforts to contact my attorney in attempt to solve my problem & he has not answered me. I understand that he is busy & I also understand that there was just a bad hurricane that caused a lot of damage. However, there are many modes of communication available these days. (i.e. telephone, jurislink, email, mail, text message, etc.) I sent word to him & I feel he could have
